Minutes later, additional police units were dispatched to a second home located within the 40-block of Prospect Hill Avenue to investigate an activated alarm. When police arrived at both scenes, it was discovered that both homes, which had been unoccupied, had been forcibly entered and that the suspects had already fled.

The preliminary investigation disclosed that the suspects entered the first home by shattering its rear kitchen window. The suspects rummaged through the master bedroom, removing an undisclosed amount of costume jewelry before fleeing.

On Saturday morning, June 3, police discovered evidence of an unsuccessful attempt to enter a third unoccupied home within the 50-block of Prospect Hill Avenue believed to have occurred during the same initial time frame the previous night.
