Employment Opportunity with Summit Police Department

SUMMIT, NJ, June 1, 2022 – The City of Summit Police Department has an immediate opening for a full time, probationary police officer in its patrol unit. The department is accepting applications for the position until June 24, 2022. The starting salary is $49,127.00. Applicants for the position must meet the following basic requirements:

- Valid certificate from a New Jersey PTC recognized police academy signifying completion of the Basic Course for Police Officer or active police academy (NJ PTC-BCPO) trainee.
- United States citizen and resident of the State of New Jersey with a valid New Jersey driver's license.
- Minimum of 60 college credits, or military service or two years of law enforcement service.
- Read, write, and speak the English language well and intelligently. Fluency in Spanish is a plus.
- Good moral character, and not convicted of any indictable offense or crime or offense involving moral turpitude.
- Ability to perform all the tasks and duties of a police officer and meet age requirements as set forth by the NJ Police and Fire Retirement System (PFRS) and state statute.
- Pass a medical and psychological examination, and an extensive background investigation to include drug screening.

The City of Summit is an equal opportunity employer. Applicants with limited access to a computer may contact Nikki Griffiths at 908-277-9472 for further assistance.

Applications are available at the Summit Police Department located at 512 Springfield Avenue or in the employment section of the City of Summit website.
